

PEDIATRIC DENTIST OPPORTUNITY

Richmond and Berea, Kentucky

At Bluegrass Pediatric Dentistry, Dr. Lucas Bowen and Dr. Zak Thobaben have built a thriving, community-focused practice with locations in Richmond and Berea, Kentucky. Families trust their team for compassionate care, a fun atmosphere, and the highest standard of dentistry for children.

We're looking for a full-time associate who is enthusiastic, dependable, and eager to grow in their career. This opportunity offers 4-5 days a week and the benefit of working alongside two engaged owner-doctors who are committed to mentoring and setting you up for long-term success.

Living and working in Central Kentucky means enjoying the perfect mix of small-town community and easy access to Lexington's culture, dining, and outdoor beauty. It's a wonderful place to put down roots and build a rewarding career.
